About BCNC Quincy:

For 50 years, BCNC has been a vital presence in Greater Boston and beyond, empowering Asians and new immigrants to build healthy families, achieve greater economic success, and contribute to thriving communities through innovative programs and services. Learning that over 20% of participants were commuting from Quincy to receive services in Boston, we launched BCNC Quincy in 2014. Since the start of the program, BCNC Quincy has been ranked the #1 adult education program in the South Shore while serving hundreds of youth, adults, and families with critical services.
